

Transformative Leadership for the Common Good

Every organization is shaped by its leaders, employees, clients, and programming.

Organizations are dynamic systems with unique structures and cultures, operating in specific environments. Effective leadership as well as recognizing the potential of those on your team leads to greater overall success and a positive work environment.

Whether you are a leader or looking to move into a leadership role, you need the skills to manage people, conflicts, resources, and trauma as well as a variety of techniques for decision-making and strategic planning.

The Summer Peacebuilding Institute offers the following courses to help you develop tools for reflective practice and evaluative thinking skills to improve workplace and program functionality:

Organizational Leadership for Social Transformation (May 9 - 17, 2016)

Strategies for Trauma-Informed Organizations (May 19 - 27, 2016)

Human Systems Dynamics in Action (May 30 - June 3, 2016)

Program and Project Management (June 6 - 10, 2016)
